To The Dewan to His Highness
The Maha Rajah of Mysore

Sir - I have the honor to submit a copy of a letter to my address from the India Office dated the 9th ultimo intimating the decision of State to pay my British pension in England at the minimum rate of 1/5 9d the Rupee and at any higher rate that may be fixed hereafter - Hitherto as you are aware, the India Office having refused to pay pensions granted by Foreign Governments after 1885/86, the pension of Rupees 1000- per annum awarded to me by His Highness the Maha Rajah has been paid to me through Messrs Coutts & Co. at the current commercial rate of exchange, which have been as low as 1/4 and even less. The recent improvement has enabled them to pay at 1/5 3 in April to 1/8 3/4 in September the rate prevailing on the day of payment. I venture to bring this circumstance to notice with my respectful request that His Highness will be pleased to authorise my Mysore pension to be paid, with effect from April last, according to the rule which has now been adopted by Her Majesty's Govern! on the recommendation of a Select Committee of the House of Commons, appointed to investigate the grievances of pensioners arising from the depreciation of the Rupee.

I may remark that my Mysore pension was applied for and sanctioned by His Highness in accordance with the rules of the Civil Pension Code in force in Mysore, the amendments to which ~~have~~ ~~invariably~~ made from time to time by the Govt of India have been invariably adopted by His Highness's Govt. The new rule for payment of such pensions in England is one of such amendments, superseding a clause in the Code under which payment was made on less favorable terms.
I trust therefore my request will be considered to be one in conformity with the pension rules recognised by the Mysore State.

I may be permitted to add that all the other British officers whose pensions are wholly or partly charged to Mysore Revenues have invariably been paid by the India office at the rate prevailing for British pensions. My Mysore pension is,
I believe a solitary exception although the Order granted, to quote His Highness's words,
"in recognition of long devoted and valuable services.

I have the honor to be

No. 8307—G. 2023-92, DATED BANGALORE, 10TH DECEMBER 1892.

ORDER THEREON.—Having regard to the prevailing high rates of exchange charged for remittances to England, Government are pleased, in modification of the Orders read above, to sanction as a temporary measure, family remittances not exceeding a moiety of their salaries, being made to England by Officers belonging to the Mysore Local Service only at the rate of 1*s.* 4$\frac{3}{4}$d. per rupee on requisitions of the Comptroller on Messrs. No. 9946—G. F. 453-92, DATED, BANGALORE, 23RD DECEMBER 1893.

ORDER.—By Orders No. 8307—G. 2023-92, dated 10th December 1892, the Officers of the Mysore Local Service, were, as a temporary measure, permitted to remit to England for the support or education of members of their families dependent upon them in England, any sums, not exceeding a moiety of their salaries, at 1s. 4¾d. per rupee, on requisitions of the Comptroller on Messrs. Coutts and Co., London. In April 1893, the Mysore Government further intimated its intention to prescribe for such remittances a further limit by way of an annual maximum amount.

2. The Government of India, in their Financial Resolution No. 3624A of 18th August 1893, sanctioned for British Officers, European or Eurasian, not domiciled in India, an Exchange compensation allowance equivalent to the difference between the rate of 1s. 6d. per rupee and the actual market rate, on one-half the salary, but not exceeding a maximum limit of £1.000 per annum.

3. The Government of His Highness the Maharaja are unable to apply to the Officers of the Local Service the Rules of the Government of India described in the preceding para in their entirety. The question of domicile is one always difficult satisfactorily to solve, and, as the intended relief is for the express purpose of compensating Officers for the extra cost of English remittances due to the depreciation of the rupee, it will meet all legitimate requirements to give to local officers the concession of making remittances at the special privileged rate of 1s. 6d. the rupee, to the extent actually necessary for the support or education of members of their families resident in England, provided that in no case shall such remittances exceed one-half of the monthly salary or a total of Rs. 15,000 per annum. Until further orders such remittances may continue to be made, as hitherto, by requisitions of the Comptroller upon Messrs. Coutts and Co., London.

4. Under such circumstances His Highness the Maharaja's Government are pleased to direct the adoption, until further orders of the following Rule in lieu of the one contained in Proceedings No. 8307—G. 2023-92, dated 10th December 1892 :—

" Officers belonging to the Mysore Local Service will be permitted to make " family remittances to England at a special privileged rate of " exchange, which for the time being, is fixed at 1s. 6d. the " rupee, by requisitions of the Comptroller on Messrs. Coutts and " Co., London, provided that such remittances shall in no case " exceed the Officer's monthly salary or a maximum limit of " Rs. 15,000 per annum, and provided further that any application " for such a remittance is accompanied by a certificate in the fol- " lowing form signed by the applicant" :—

" Certified that the remittance desired is bonâ fide for the support (or educa- " tion) of members of my family dependent on me in England." "

5. The above rule shall come into effect from 1st January 1894, but, as regards remittances already made by Local Officers since 1st April 1893 up to 1st January 1894, they will be allowed the benefit of the privileged rate now sanctioned of 1s. 6d. the rupee. The difference between this rate and 1s. 4¾d. calculated on the actual remittances between 1st April 1893 and 1st January 1894 will be paid to the Officers concerned, by the Comptroller, and charged in the accounts as "Exchange Compensation allowance of Local Officers."

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, (General,)—dated 23rd December 1893.

6. As regards the Exchange Compensation allowances of British Officers lent to the State, the sanction of the Government of India, applied for in Chief Secretary's letter to the 1st Assistant to the Resident No. 6821—G. F. 453-92, dated 9th October 1893, is awaited.

I have the honor to state that an additional demand for £48-14-5 for the quarter ended 30th June 1890 having been received from the Accountant General Madras on account of pensions of the Mysore Government paid by the Secretary of State, an explanation was demanded and in reply a copy of the Comptroller General's letter No. 1663 of the 5th January 1891 to his address (copy enclosed) has been furnished to me explaining that the additional demand is the difference between exchange at 1-5 the rate fixed for the financial year 1890-91 for all the Secretary of State's transactions, and 1-6 the minimum rate guaranted by the Secretary of State for the conversion of Rupee-pensions into Sterling and that this ruling has been made applicable to all such pensions as are chargeable either wholly or partly to Foreign States.
